▶ Safety and Health at Work

- 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Goals

- Safety and health at work can be key to sustainable development and investment in OSH can help contribute to the achievement of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

- Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 3 and 8

▶ How can we respond to accidents and diseases at work?

To reduce work-related burden of disease, intersectoral action is needed by:

- ▶ Adopting population health approach to workers' health
- ▶ Scaling up “efforts to promote healthier and safer workplaces and improve access to occupational health services”, and
- ▶ Addresses the social determinants of workers' health to improve health equity

These assessments, policies and programmes should be developed with the active involvement of employers and workers or their representatives
