

JOBS FOR PEACE AND RESILIENCE

Panel Discussion

Friday, 9 November 2018

09:00 to 10:15

Room XI, Palais des Nations, Geneva

PLEASE REGISTER ONLINE

ilo.org/gpw2018

Panellists:

Ms. Charlotte Bennborn, Head of Economic Security, ICRC

Dr. Oliver Jütersonke, CCDP Head of Research

Ms. Aminata Maiga, Director of the International Labour Organization (ILO) Country Office for Angola, Central African Republic, Chad, Congo, Democratic Republic of Congo and Gabon

Opening/Closing Remarks:

Oliver Hoehne, Deputy Head of the Multilateral Division of the Permanent Mission of Switzerland to the United Nations Office and to the other international organisations in Geneva

Moderator:

Mr. Donato Kiniger-Passigli, ILO Coordinator, Fragile States and Disaster Response

© Copyright ILO

Conflicts have severe implications on people's livelihoods, while poverty, unemployment and decent work deficits can themselves become triggers of vulnerability and fragility. The panellists will debate how immediate and long-term decent work and employment creation can reinforce social cohesion, build peace and ensure resilience to future shocks.

